

THE MARINE HOTEL

The Marine Hotel is a luxury four-star hotel in Troon, a small town on the south west coast of Scotland. It's a stunning locale that's ideal for getting away from it all, yet it's also easily accessible, with Glasgow just a short journey by car or train.

The hotel boasts traditional grandeur and sophisticated style, with period detailing and elegant décor throughout the interiors, from the reception area and restaurant to the tastefully appointed guest rooms. It enjoys a peaceful setting on the south side of Troon, nestled between two golf courses – and overlooks the 18th green of the Old Course of the Royal Troon Golf Club.

The stunning rooms and restaurants leave a great impression on potential business clients.

Whether you are celebrating an occasion or just indulging on your holiday we guarantee to have something to your taste. All our ingredients are fresh and sourced locally so don't feel too guilty for treating yourself.

Whatever the reason for your stay, we'd be delighted to have you at The Marine Hotel.

Golf

If Scotland is the home of golf then Ayrshire is its capital. With a stunning collection of challenging links courses it really is a perfect place for golf break in Scotland.

So if you're looking for a break away and to play some of the UK's best golf courses then why not stay at The Marine Hotel in Troon. The hotel has a wide selection of rooms and packages available for every kind of stay.

Ayrshire has over 40 golf courses, but it's The Royal Troon, Turnberry and Prestwick, which are previous and future hosts of the Open Championship, that put Ayrshire on the golfing map.
